

CAT GARDINER

Novelist

Romance, 20th Century Historical Fiction,
Contemporary, Austen-inspired

WW2 Home Front Living Historian

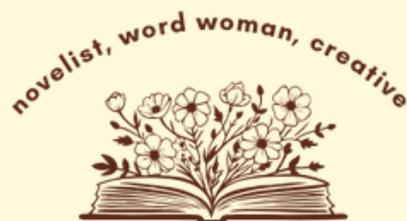

Cat Gardiner loves romance, happy endings, history, and comedy. A member of the esteemed National League of American Pen Women, she enjoys writing across the spectrum of the romance genre from Contemporary to Romantic Comedy, 20th Century Historical Fiction, and Pride and Prejudice-inspired.

Apart from her husband, her greatest passion is writing Historical Fiction, WWII-era. Her debut novel in this genre, A Moment Forever, was a 2017 Next Generation Indie Book Award Romance Finalist.

Cat takes her readers on a swell journey at The 1940s Experience blog and gallery where she shares her writing, reenacting, and the stories of those who lived through the trials and joys of the era. It is her belief that everyone should have an understanding of the 1940s experience.
